The Old Order Amish typically have worship services every second Sunday in private homes. The typical district has 80 adults and 90 children under age 19. Worship begins with a short sermon by one of several preachers or the bishop of the church district, followed by scripture reading and prayer (this prayer is silent in some communities), then another, longer sermon.

Scot's own form of this kind of Amish-ish ministry is to run a small dairy farm in west-central Michigan, in the midst of what is popularly called a (very) "red" community; and to do work with addicts and poor people, many in Flint, Michigan. Besides chronic poverty, too many of whom even yet don't have safe water for themselves or their families (i.e., are still forgotten).
