review 1: The best aspect of this novel is the translation. I can't comment on its accuracy, but the translator took a somewhat soulless work of fiction and presented it in elegant, flowing English. On the surface the book sounds irresistible: the story of a genius who becomes involved in advanced theoretical mathematics and then becomes the leading cryptologist for the Chinese government, with ...

Community Reviews. Mai Jia is a Chinese Borges. Using documents presented as factual he constructs a fiction that is the truth of a culture. For Borges, it was European culture and its influence in South America that was a primary topic. In Mai's case the culture is that of China: driven, obsessive, clever, and secretive.
